

SATURDAY
THE AGE
Spectrum

AUGUST 1, 2015

FILM
Jacki Weaver
10

OPTIMISM
Bob Brown
12

INTERVIEW
Emma Stone
15

The gift of words

Will Self, Peter Singer, Maxine Beneba Clarke, Graeme Simsion and Renata Singer unwrap the books that changed them. PAGE 8

20% OFF
OVER 40 THRILLING
AND CHILLING TITLES

CRIME BOOKS
CRIME BOOKS

20% OFF
SELECTED CRIME TITLES

Thursday 30 July to Sunday 6 September 2015

Dymocks Melbourne • 234 Collins Street

Ph: 9663 0900 • E: melbourne@dymocks.com.au

CRIME BOOKS

MENU ▾

JULY 31, 2015 - 11:45 PM

ARTICLE 18 OF 34

Local House by Make Architecture. Photo: Peter Bennetts

Keeping an eye on the kids: how social media is reshaping the family home

RAY EDGAR

David Fincher's film The Social Network depicts its misfit hero Mark Zuckerberg as an "asshole savant" with 500 million Facebook friends and no real ones - a visionary with zero social skills who just wanted to be "liked".

It's convenient to blame Zuck and his ilk for ushering in an era of superficial friendships and vacuous interests, while demonising the technology for making

Interior spaces flow in Local House by Make Architecture. Photo: Peter Bennetts